

Citizenship, Sovereignty and Self-Determination: UNDRIP and the Democratic State

2025 Coral Bell School Annual Lecture on Indigenous Diplomacy

This lecture reconsiders UNDRIP not as a threat to the liberal state, but as extending liberalism's concern for equality by recognising both persons and peoples. Drawing on Nancy Fraser's participatory parity, Maaka and Fleras' "belonging together differently," and SDG 16, it critiques UN vulnerability narratives and re-centres Indigenous agency and self-determination.
