

ANU College of Asia and the Pacific – Undergraduate Internship Opportunities 2018

1. CAP will not support self-sourced internships in 2018
2. CAP supports student participation in the ANIP Internships program – which include the Australian Commonwealth Parliamentary Internships and some International Internships. (<http://anip.anu.edu.au/>)

3. 2018 CAP Supported Internship Opportunities

Applications through <http://anu-au-sa.terradotta.com/index.cfm?FuseAction=Abroad.Home>

- 1) ANU JGU (Jindal Global University) in India – New Colombo Plan funded
 - Applications open in Semester 2
 - 3 Week India Immersion Programme – An Introduction to Politics, Society and Foreign Policy
 - 3 Week Internship following the immersion program
- 2) Seoul Sojourn – not for credit internship
 - Applications date to be announced.
 - Students participate in the Semester in Asia in Korea, ASIA5920
 - 4 students will then add 3 week not-for-credit internship to the end of their semester in Korea.
- 3) Coral Bell – Thales Internships (ASIA2110)
 - <https://www.thalesgroup.com/en/countries/asia-pacific/australia>
 - Competitive application process – Semester 1 & 2
 - Only available to students in 3rd year and above with a signification security studies or IR component to their degree.
- 4) Coral Bell – Australian Civil Military Centre (ASIA2110)
 - <https://www.acmc.gov.au/>
 - Only available to students in 3rd year and above with a signification security studies or IR component to their degree.
 - Competitive application process – Semester 2
- 5) Coral Bell – Australian Peace Keeping Centre (ASIA2110)
 - Only available to students in 3rd year and above with a signification security studies or IR component to their degree.
 - Competitive application process – Semester 2
- 6) Price Waterhouse Cooper – pilot under development – 1 student 2018
- 7) Asia Foundation Internships – pilot under development